

WRITING SAMPLE: ADVENTURE SET UP & QUEST (PG 1/2)

FADE IN:

INT. PLANE - DAY

PILOT

This is as far as I go.

PLAYER

We're 5 clicks from the drop point!

PILOT

Right, but you didn't say it was guarded.

PLAYER

I told you it was a military facility.

PILOT

You said it was a military lab. Labs are filled with boring white coats who eat tuna for lunch.

PLAYER

So there are some guards.

PILOT

No, not guards. Those are tactical teams with enough firepower to dust us out of the sky.

PLAYER

Over there! 3 o'clock. Drop me in that valley.

PILOT

No go. The hot air trapped down there will stress the engines.

PLAYER

How low can you go?

PILOT

35,000 feet.

PLAYER

Do it.

Player finishes snapping the last pieces of her parachute on.

PILOT

You really think you can break into that place? Alone?

PLAYER

I have to.

PILOT

From that high up, they'll see you coming from a mile away.

PLAYER

Not if I wait to pull my chute in the shadow of that mountain ridge.

PILOT

Alright then, it's now or never.

PILOT

Go, go now!

PILOT

Jump, damnit! Before that cloud blocks your view!

EXT. SKY

Player jumps in free fall.

EXT. BUILDING

From the sky, Player zooms in on the structure of the building.

PLAYER

Interlaced steel columns and bars so bombs won't work.

From the sky, Player zooms in on the rooftop solar windows.

PLAYER

Blast resistant windows, probably 2-4 inches thick.

From the sky, Player zooms in on guards covering the grounds.

PLAYER

Teams of 5 at each door.

EXT. SKY WITH MOUNTAIN

PLAYER

Shit! The wind is pushing me too close to the mountain! I'm going to crash!
